CONTENTS

Why Do ICU Patients Look and Act That Way?.................................................................1
Chronic Critical Illness in Adults Requiring Prolonged Mechanical Ventilation…….6
Participating in Care: What Questions Should I Ask?....................................................11
Making Decisions About ICU Care..................................................................................16
What Are the Choices Regarding Life Support?............................................................20
Sepsis: What You Should Know......................................................................................24
Taking Care of Yourself While a Family Member Is in the ICU.................................26
Critical Care Medication .................................................................................................29
Post-Intensive Care Syndrome (PICS)............................................................................35
Death by Neurological Criteria (Brain Death).................................................................39
What to Expect After Your Family Member Leaves the ICU: Post-Intensive Care
Syndrome (PICS) and Other Issues.................................................................................42
Life Support Equipment..................................................................................................49
What to Expect When Your Child Is in a Pediatric Intensive Care Unit (PICU)…52
Palliative Care for Children..............................................................................................59
Glossary............................................................................................................................62
Resources........................................................................................................................66